

1874, Willowgreen,
Drive, Beavercreek,
OH, 45432

A photograph of the exterior of the 1920s Colonial Revival style house. The house features a brick facade with white trim around the windows and doors. A large green lawn is in the foreground, and mature trees are visible on either side of the house. The house has a central entrance with a dark door and a small porch. There are several windows with white frames and shutters. A small American flag is visible on the right side of the house.
