A large, two-story brick house with a white garage, a covered front porch, and a blue sky with clouds in the background. The house features a prominent front porch with white columns and a small arched window above the entrance. The roof is dark grey, and the overall style is a traditional suburban home.

A two-story house with a combination of red brick and white horizontal siding. The front facade features a large two-car garage with white doors on the left. To the right of the garage is a brick pillar with a small arched window and a black door with a transom. Further right is a covered front porch with white columns and a brick base. The second story has a large multi-paned window with black shutters and a smaller arched window in the gable. The house is set on a green lawn under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. A concrete driveway leads to the garage.
